Application and Instructions

Before starting the online application, students should read the following instructions and have available all necessary information to complete the application. You may want to print this out to help in organizing our information. If you are unclear on anything please contact isucceed@iurbanteen.org to get your questions answered.

Background:

This iUrban Teen scholarship is for the benefit of selected young people who have been accepted to, or who are enrolled in good standing in, an accredited two or four-year degree or technical/career program.

Portland Metro: Five awards will be given to select youth in the amount of $2,000 per student.

Puget Sound: Four awards will be given to select youth in the amount of $2,000 per student. Sponsored by the Puget Sound Relocation Council.

Veterinary Technicians and Assistants: Two $2,000 scholarships will be given to students pursuing Vet Tech and Assistant roles.

National - We will give five $1,000 scholarships to students living outside of Oregon and Washington.

Award amounts, timing, and other fund administration rules and policies may be modified in the future on the approval of the national board of iUrban Teen.

Applicant Eligibility Criteria:

The applicant is a resident of Clark (WA), Cowlitz (WA), Skamania (WA), Multnomah (OR), Washington (OR), Clackamas (OR), King (WA), Pierce (WA), or Snohomish (WA) county.

Preference is given to current or past participants in an iUrban Teen program.

The applicant has been accepted to or is enrolled in good standing in, an accredited two or four-year degree or technical/career program.

Preference is given to first-time applicants having graduated high school (or received GED) in the most recent school year. Applications will be considered from higher-level students, including repeat applicants or previous recipients, who are otherwise eligible.

Preference is given to applicants who participated in free or reduced lunch program during high school.

Uses and Disbursement of Awards:

Awards will be restricted to funding of tuition and books.

Scholarship awards will be disbursed from iUrban teen directly to the college, university, or school the recipient(s) have been accepted to on behalf of the recipient(s).

None of the awards will be issued directly to the recipient, and no portion of the award may be assigned to another by the recipient.

Application timing and process:

Applicants must complete an application, including supporting documents, by Friday April 23, 2021.

Applicants will be selected and notified by May 7, 2021. Applicants not selected will be notified at that time as well.

Applications and supporting documents must be submitted electronically to iUrban Teen via this digital form.
